

Privacy Policy

Green Cloud Defense (“Green Cloud” or “Green Cloud Technologies” or “we” or “our” or “us”) is committed to the protection of the privacy of our customers and website visitors. We have established this Privacy Policy as a means of disclosing to you how we collect, utilize, distribute, and protect your personal information. For the purposes of this Privacy Policy, “customer” shall mean any past, current, or prospective customer or reseller of Green Cloud, including any visitor to the Green Cloud websites and users of the Green Cloud Partner Portal. This Privacy Policy governs the manner in which Green Cloud collects, uses, maintains and discloses information collected from its customers and users. By visiting our website, utilizing the Partner Portal, or otherwise providing Green Cloud with your personal information by any means, you accept and consent to the practices described in this Privacy Policy.

This Privacy Policy covers our collection, use, and disclosure of information we collect through our website located at <http://www.greenclouddefense.com>, our Partner Portal located at <https://portal.greenclouddefense.com>, and our Cloud Services. The use of information collected through our service shall be limited to the purpose of providing the service for which the Customer has engaged Green Cloud.

Personal Information We May Collect

Green Cloud may collect personally identifiable information from customers or users in a variety of ways, including online and offline subscription and order forms, paper or telephone submissions, and other instances where customers are invited to volunteer such information. Additionally, contact information may be collected during any correspondence relating to support, as well as in connection with Green Cloud services. Green Cloud may collect personal information such as contact name, contact title, business name and business type, email addresses, phone numbers, business physical address(es), as well as other information.

How Personal Information May be Used

Green Cloud may contact customers regarding products and services offered by Green Cloud and its trusted affiliates, business partners, and independent contractors. We will share your personal information with third parties only in the ways that are described in this Privacy Policy. We do not sell your personal information to third parties. We may also use information collected through the Green Cloud websites or portal for research regarding the effectiveness of the Green Cloud websites, portal, and related marketing, advertising and sales efforts. Information will only be made publicly available where mandated by governing agencies, in response to subpoenas or court orders, or as disclosed in the terms and conditions of our agreements with customers and resellers.

As is true of most web sites, we gather certain information automatically and store it in log files. This information may include internet protocol (IP) addresses, browser type, internet service provider (ISP), referring/exit pages, operating system, date/time stamp, and/or clickstream data.

We do not link this automatically-collected data to other information we collect about you.

Green Cloud and its partners use cookies or similar technologies to analyze trends, administer the websites, track users' movements around the websites, and to gather demographic information about our user base as a whole. You can control the use of cookies at the individual browser level, but if you choose to disable cookies, it may limit your use of certain features or functions on our web sites.

Data Integrity and Security

The security of your personal information is important to us. We follow generally accepted standards to protect the personal information submitted to us, both during transmission and once we receive it. No method of transmission over the Internet, or method of electronic storage, is 100% secure, however. Therefore, we cannot guarantee its absolute security.

In the event of any level of compromise of personal information, Green Cloud Defense is committed to communicating the scope, impact, and future risks associated with the incident as quickly as possible to the impacted parties, typically within 72 hours of the event.

Right of Access

Upon request, Green Cloud will provide you with information about whether we hold any of your personal information. Customers may access all personal identifiable information that we collect and maintain by contacting us by mail or telephone at the contact information listed below. They can correct, update and delete factual errors in personally identifiable information by contacting us by mail or telephone at the contact information listed below. To protect customer privacy and security, Green Cloud reserves the right to take reasonable steps to verify customer identity prior to granting access or processing changes or corrections. Any requests for access to personal information will be answered within thirty (30) days.

We will retain your information for as long as your account is active or as needed to provide you services. Please contact us if you wish to cancel your account or request that we no longer use your information to provide you services. We will retain and use your information as necessary to comply with our legal obligations, resolve disputes, and enforce our agreements.

Electronic Mail

Electronic communications may be sent by Green Cloud using customers' personal contact information to inform them of new products, important industry news, or general service status and updates provided by Green Cloud. If customers do not wish to receive marketing related notices, they may at any time opt-out by clicking the Unsubscribe link located at the bottom of all marketing and product notices.

Additionally, customers can subscribe to service related notifications such as service and network status, billing notices, subscription usage notices, and others, Green Cloud will continue to send relevant service emails regarding customers' account administration or maintenance notifications until such a time that the customer opts-out or notified Green Cloud to be removed.

Disclosure

Information collected from customers may be disclosed to independent contractors and business partners who have agreed to hold this information in confidence, not use it for any purpose except to carry out the service they are providing for Green Cloud, and honor our privacy and security policies in the way this information is handled. Green Cloud may also disclose aggregate, anonymous data based on information collected from customers to actual or prospective investors and partners. Should a sale of Green Cloud's business ever occur, collected customer information may be transferred along with the sale but the information will be treated in the same manner as set forth in this Privacy Policy. We may also disclose your personal information as required by law, such as to comply with a subpoena or other legal process, when we believe in good faith that disclosure is necessary to protect our rights, protect your safety or the safety of others, investigate fraud, or respond to a government request.

Children's Privacy

In accordance with the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA), we never collect or maintain information on our website from those we actually know are under the age of 13, and no part of our website is structured to attract anyone under 13.

Third Party Sites

The Green Cloud websites may contain links to third-party websites. Please note that these websites' privacy and other policies may differ from those of Green Cloud. For any concerns as to the privacy of your information on these websites, please refer to their respective privacy policies. Green Cloud has no control over and is not responsible for the information practices of other websites, including those to which we may link and those which may link to us.

California Disclosures

California Information-Sharing Disclosure: California residents may request a list of all third parties with respect to which we have disclosed any information about you for direct marketing purposes and the categories of information disclosed. If you are a California resident and want such a list, please send us a written request by email to compliance@greenclouddefense.com with "California Privacy Rights" in the subject line.
